CLASS HISTORY

STARTING OUT IN "51" . . . SCHOOL TO US WAS SUCH FUN

The morning of September 5th, 1951, finally arrived, and we headed for D. H. S., no less confused than the others before us. How we managed to pull through, we'll never know!

Although inexperienced, we gained confidence in ourselves through the advisorship of Mr. Olivio Lopes, Mr. Walter Scanlon, and Mrs. Janet Kinnane. We completed our first big task by electing a capable staff of officers: Joyce Soares, President; Anna Hay, Vice President; John Allen, Secretary; Lucille Costa, Treasurer; Student Council: Bob Silvia, Jerry Cottrell.

Football soon was the major attraction, and we contributed in a large measure to the spirit of the season. John Allen, Jerry Cottrell, David Phillips, Robert Sherman, Maynard Horton, and David French represented us on the team.

Jumps and cartwheels! What spirit Joyce Soares, Alberta Motta, Elizabeth Torres, and Janet Rose, our cheerleaders, had

In January, we sponsored our first dance, the Frosh Frolick. Although it was not a huge financial success, we had fun planning it.

Excitement galore: With quavering hearts, we entered the social whirl at D. H. S. Our first formal the Mardi Gras had Joyce Soares and Robert Sherman as attendants from our class.

The Talent Show and assembly play brought forth singers, dancers, comedians, and actors.

Although we lost our first play contest, we hoped to win the next year.

Music and more music filled the air as we prepared to take part in the Spring Concert. Then came time for finals. We scrambled to our books and brushed up on what we had learned as Freshmen. Exams were soon over and so was our freshman year. We now belonged at D. H. S.

RETURNING TO SCHOOL IN "52" WE FOUND THAT THERE WAS LOTS TO DO.

We embarked feeling a little more experienced and important.

We elected Robert Sherman as our President, Joyce Soares as Vice President, David French as Secretary, and Barbara Lee as Treasurer. As our Student Council representatives we chose Elizabeth Torres and Lucille Costa. Lucille was chosen Secretary of the Council and was later chosen Co-Editor of the Beacon.

The football team was heavily populated with Sophomores this year. There were fifteen in number. Our treasury was boosted by a football dance.

We set a precedent by sponsoring the Christmas Dance as Sophomores.

On the first string basketball squad, Dave French, Dave Phillips, and Sam Andrade were chosen for the boys, Lorraine Costa and Joyce Soares were chosen for the girls.

The Sophomore attendants to the King and Queen of the Mardi Gras were Robert Sherman and Joyce Soares.

In April "53" we won our first play contest. What a thrill that was for us!

Mr. Usher did well at his first Spring concert and so did we.

Finally June, the final month, ended our second year at D. H. S. We looked forward to being upperclassmen next year, but right then our only thought was vacation!

BEARING DOWN IN "53" WE WORKED HARD, AS YOU WILL SEE

We came back in our Junior year ready to go to work. Mr. Lopes again was our class advisor. The first thing we had to do was elect our leaders. We were all very glad when William Mesky was elected our President, Elizabeth Torres, Vice President, Alberta Motta, Secretary; and Joyce Soares, Treasurer. For the Student Council we elected John Allen and Wallace Wood.

The Juniors were well represented on the football team. We were really proud of having John Allen elected as one of the Co-captains. The majorettes, cheerleaders, and band did a good job in providing spirit for the games. Our football dance was a huge success and we all had a good time.

Diane Boucher did a fine job as Assistant Manager for the Magazine Drive, and we took top place in the drive. The money surely came in handy.

Finally we received our class rings. We really felt like upperclassmen now. For a few days we showed them to everyone we saw. The gold door on the black onyx really looked smart.

As underclassmen we had heard a lot about the Honor Society. We were very happy when thirteen of our class members were elected to this group. With the beginning of activities, we found Barbara Jose chosen as Beacon Editor.

Soon it was time for basketball. Dave Phillips and Sam Andrade were elected Co-captains. We had a good time supporting both the girls' and boys' games.

The Eighth Annual Speech Contest was held and the winner was none other than our class president, William Melesky.

Along came the annual Mardi Gras, put on by the French Club. Lorraine Costa and Richard Andrade made a lovely couple as our Junior attendants.

Boy, were we pleased when we beat the Seniors in the Play Contest. We surely had had rehearsals in practicing "Mad Breakfast."

Our one big dance, the Junior Prom, was soon upon us. The Night club setting and New York skyline provided a truly different theme.

Class Day during our Junior year will always be a wonderful memory. We were next door to being Seniors! Joanne Smith and William Melesky received honors that day.

Soon we would be Seniors!

BACK TO WORK IN "54" MONEY, MONEY, MORE AND MORE!

Our first job in our Senior year was to choose capable leaders for the class. We elected Wallace Wood, President, Bob Silva, Vice President, Alberta Motta, Secretary, and Liz Torres, Treasurer. For Student Council Joanne Smith and William Melesky were chosen.

Because money was needed, we plunged headlong into a paper drive and a Christmas card campaign, the latter being headed by Mary Jane Melo. These projects, along with a football dance, added a neat sum to our treasury.

When the time for sports came, we were very well represented. Football season saw Allen Hay, and Bob Sherman as co-captains. The coveted award of sweaters was given to Guire Babbit, Sam Andrade, Dave Phillips, Maynard Horton, Bob Silvia, Peter Ouellette, Hartley Gurney, and, of course, Allen and Bob. Basketball season came, and Guire Babbit and Dave Phillips, Lorraine Costa and Joyce Soares were the co-captains for the boys' and girls' teams. Other Senior members were Dave French, Sam Andrade, Bob Silva for the boys, and Jean Ashley and Roberta Hartshorn for the girls. Joyce Soares was chosen as captain of the cheerleaders. Four other Senior girls were also on the squad.

Dances seemed to come along quickly, and before we knew it, the Mardi Gras had arrived. Richard Andrade and Joyce Soares reigned as king and queen over the gala affair. The floats added a good deal to the beauty of the dance.

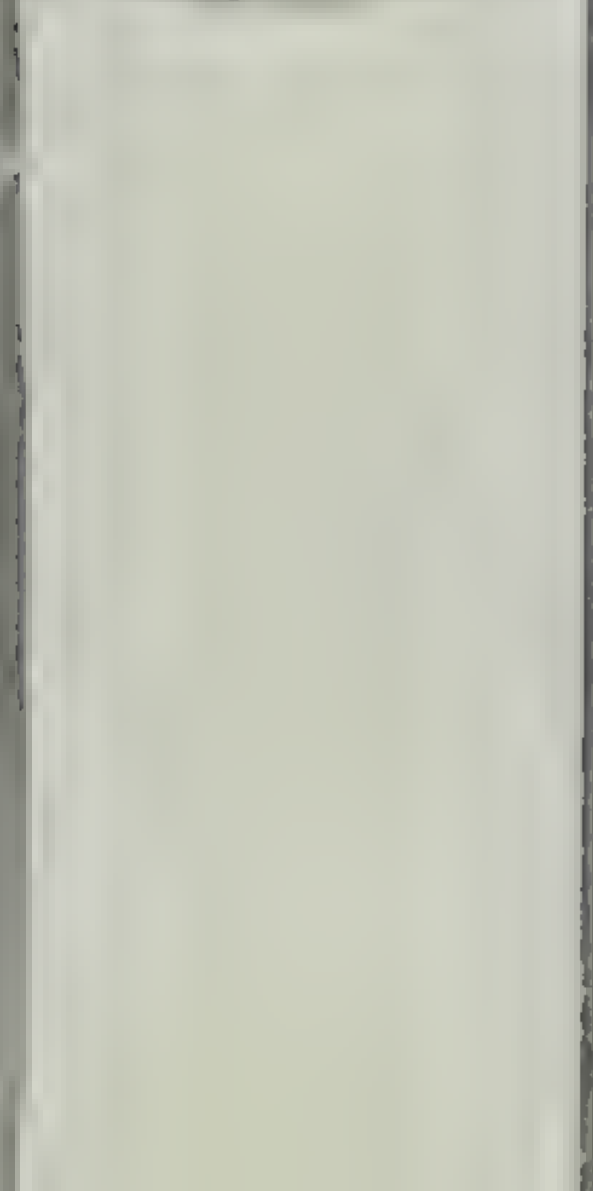

The addition of three more members to the Honor Society boosted our total to sixteen.

Robert Silvia was chosen as Good Government Day representative. Jean Ashley and Dave French were selected to participate in the New England Band in Rutland, Vermont. Joanne Smith, in addition to being chosen as our D. A. R. representative, was also chosen as co-editor of the yearbook along with Barbara Jose. Mr. Scanlon did a wonderful job as yearbook advisor.

The Washington trip turned out to be a wonderful one for all. We enjoyed ourselves, plagued our chaperones, and came home to make up for the sleep we lost during our four days.

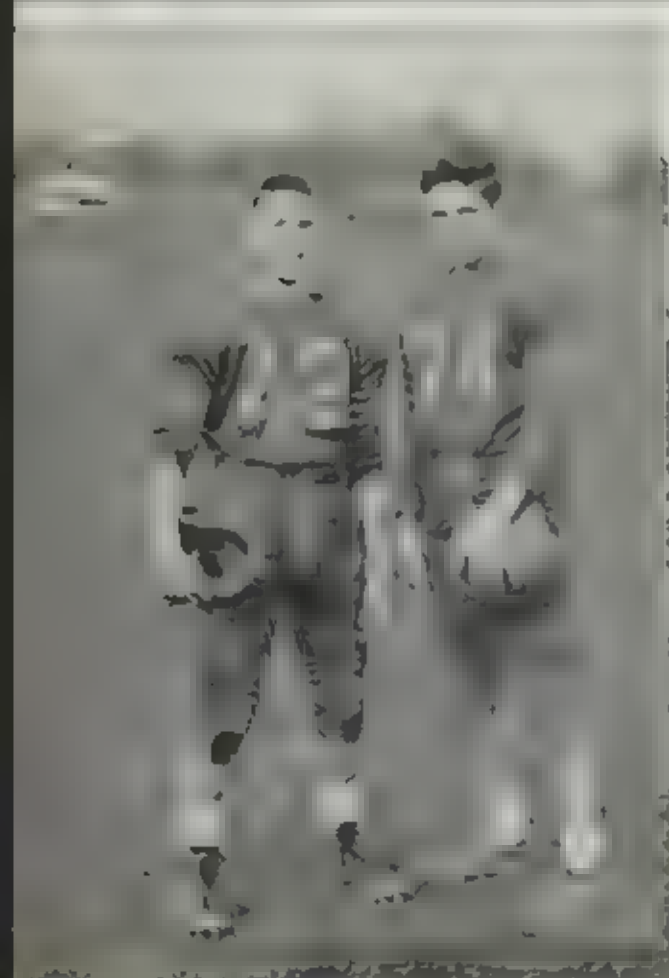

Barbara Jose, William Melesky, and Wallace Wood were chosen as graduation speakers.

At the close of the writing of this history, we find ourselves looking forward to class day, graduation, and the final docking at the journey's end.

WE, THE CLASS OF 1955

being of sound mind and memory, do make, ordain, publish and declare this to be our . . .

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We leave to the faculty the peace and quiet which will follow after we graduate.

We, the Seniors, bequeath to the Freshmen our excellent study habits.

To the Sophomore class we leave our dependency. May they overcome their timid ways.

To the Junior Class we leave the ability to have as many participants in sports as we have had.

Bette Adams leaves her messy locker to anyone with ambition enough to clean it.

Richie Andrade bequeaths his curly hair to Stephen Hall.

Jean Ashley and Sarah Bindon leave their odd hair color combination to Joan De-Moranville.

Gore Babbitt and Bob Sherman leave behind their knack of getting into trouble to Lionel Carr and Jackie Bettencourt.

Peter Baker leaves his ready blush to Billy Benevides.

Sylvia Bettencourt leaves her long pony-tail to Nancy Cornell.

Diane Boucher leaves her Hazel Bishop lipstick to Edith Bindon.

Manny Correia leaves his quiet manner to Clifford Wood.

Lorraine Costa leaves the ability to acquire a cute nickname to any underclassman.

Lucille Costa leaves her argumentative ability to Eleanor Souza.

Kenny Cummings wills his crew cut to Mr. DiMattia.

Vivian Evangelho passes on her sense of humor to Cynthia Costa.

David French leaves his ability to get a girl who can make blouses to match his shirts to all up-and-coming couples.

Hartley Gurney leaves his Freetown ambassador title to Gilbert Amaral who will probably need a passport to get in!

Roberta Hartshorn bequeaths her diet to Nancy Cambra.

Allen Hay passes on his love triangle to Ellis Strange.

Barbara Jose wills her matrimonial plans to Rosemary Borden.

Jean LaFrance passes on her ever-ready smile to Betty Andrews.

Richard Lassen leaves his bar bells to Wilfred Berthelme, who needs a body builder.

Janet Lefavre leaves her attraction to the Phillips family to Madeline Ferreira.

Janice Lefavre grants her interest in Somerset to anyone who dares go there.

John Martin wills his energy and muscles to Paul Pacheco and Fred Hartford for equal distribution.

Ruth McCracken grants her ability to chew gum without getting caught to Libby Sherman.

Mickey Melesky leaves his violin to Pee-Wee Viveiros.

Mary Jane Mello leaves her initiative to that ever-hustling Bill Duarte.

Aberta Motta leaves her dramatic ability to Mr. DeMarco, who is never at a loss for words.

Joyce Nutbrown wills her absenteeism to Pauline Medeiros.

Mary Ann Oakes bequeaths her gay laugh to Betsey Reed.

Eddie O'Connell leaves his flashy yellow Studebaker to Douglas Grant.

Peter Ouellette leaves his favorite saying, C'est Ci Bon, to Bea Lefaiivre.

Elaine Pine and Mae Packard leave their reserved manner to Carol Pabst, who might need all of it!

Mary Pava bequeaths her ability to get along with Mr. Vitale to Richie Ferrera.

Harriet Pina leaves her talent in singing to Pat Lenney.

David Phillips leaves his aggressiveness in basketball to Harold Rose, who should be a star someday.

Richard Rodier leaves his booming voice to Charlie Brown.

Cecilia Rosario leaves her friendly ways to Nancy Tibbets, who is already endowed with them, but an extra supply won't hurt.

Janet Rose bequeaths her long fingernails to Marion Carpenter.

Henrietta Santos leaves her free periods in the cafeteria to Dolores Silva, who is always too busy to do anything but her studies!

Robert Silva leaves his engineer boots to Roland Gouart. We hope he can find them as well.

Sara Silvia leaves her favorite expression, 'Don't tell Mr. DeMarco,' to next year's driving class.

Joan Slivinski leaves her love of Western music to Myrna Menges.

Joanne Smith leaves her many awards to any Junior girl who can do as well.

Joyce Soares leaves her ability to go steady four years with one boy to Judy Atwood.

Manny Souza bequeaths his shyness to David Clark.

Joyce Stanford wills her giddiness to Carol Machado.

Pat Stetson leaves her energy in basketball to Sunny Mull.

Ronny Tetreault leaves his courtesy to Henry Goff.

Edward Torres leaves behind his unique vocabulary to Antonia Aguas.

Lizzy Torres leaves her ability to "rise and shine?" to Weston Stafford, who, of course, is ALWAYS in time!

Bob Torres wills his wonderful English marks to Laurelie Walker.

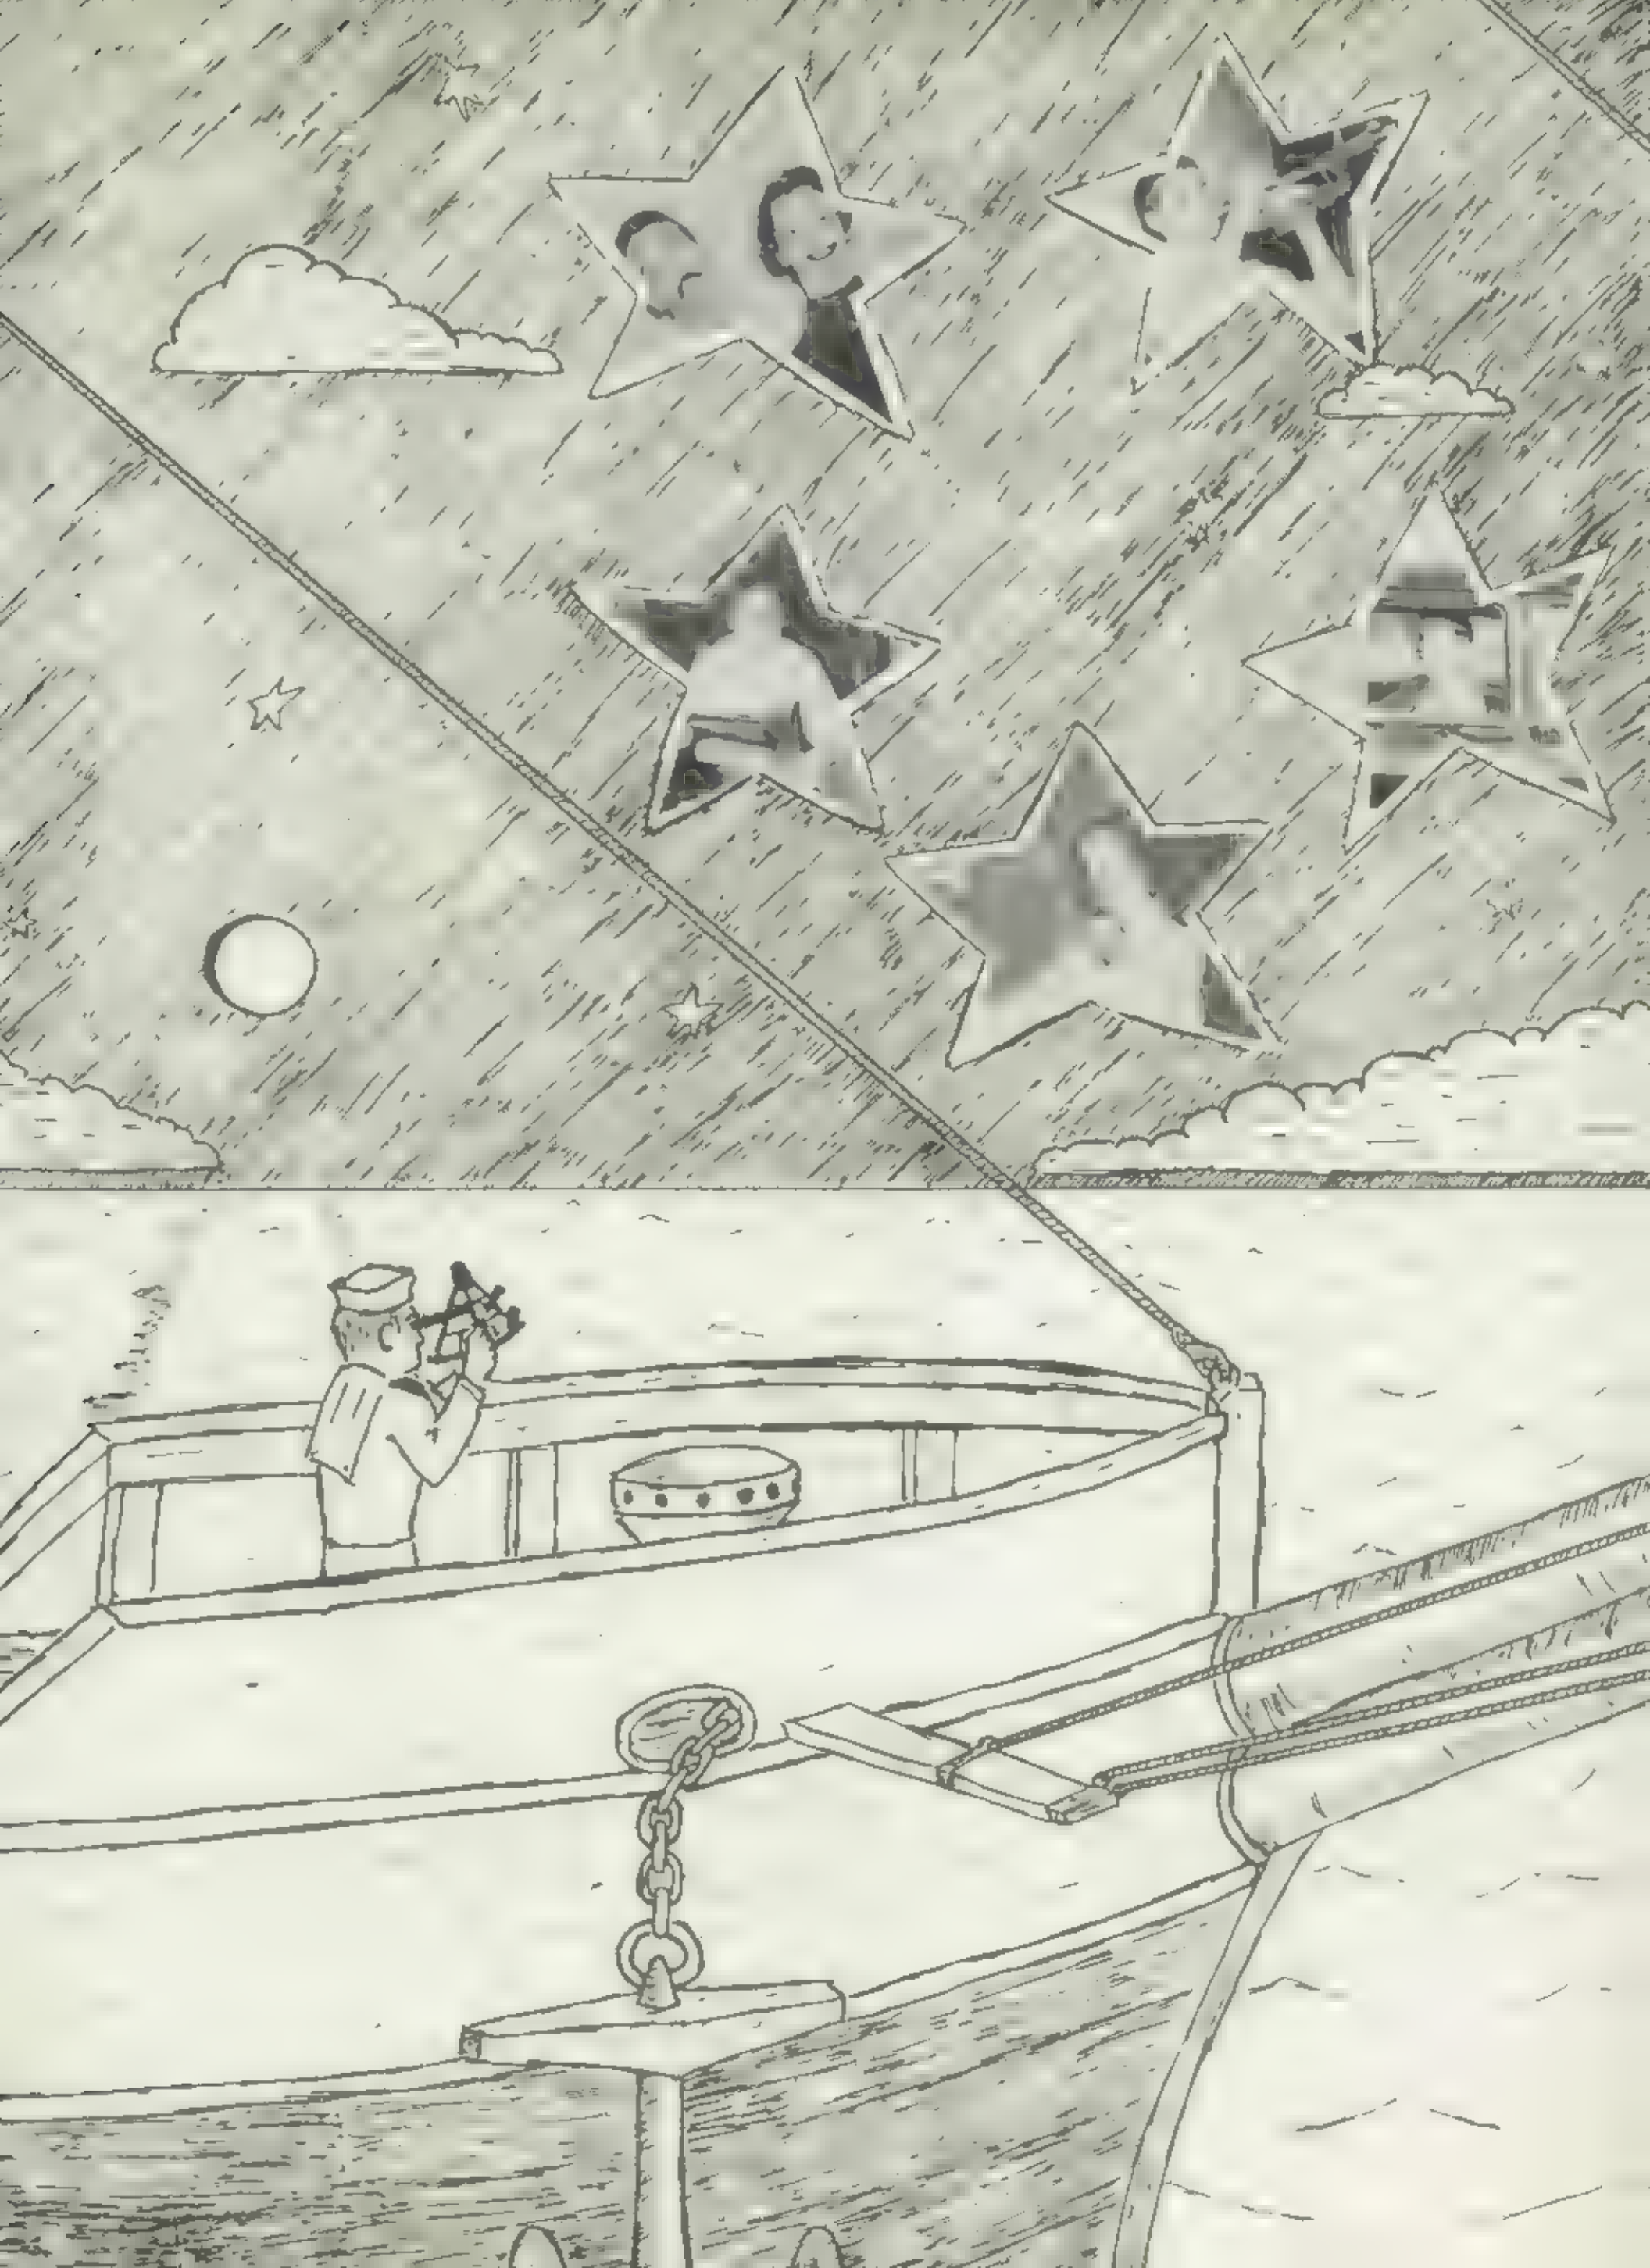

Barbara Vickers bequeaths to Anna Marie Desautels all of her old flames.

Nancy Wickham leaves her desire to be a farmer's wife to Ora Wordell.

Claudia Wilson leaves her beloved shorthand book to any up and coming Junior who can unscramble her outlines.

Shirley Wing wills to Betty Carpentier her efficient cooking ability.

Wallace Wood leaves "those special privileges" he's had as class president to any Junior capable enough to fill the position.
